

C

FRIDAY

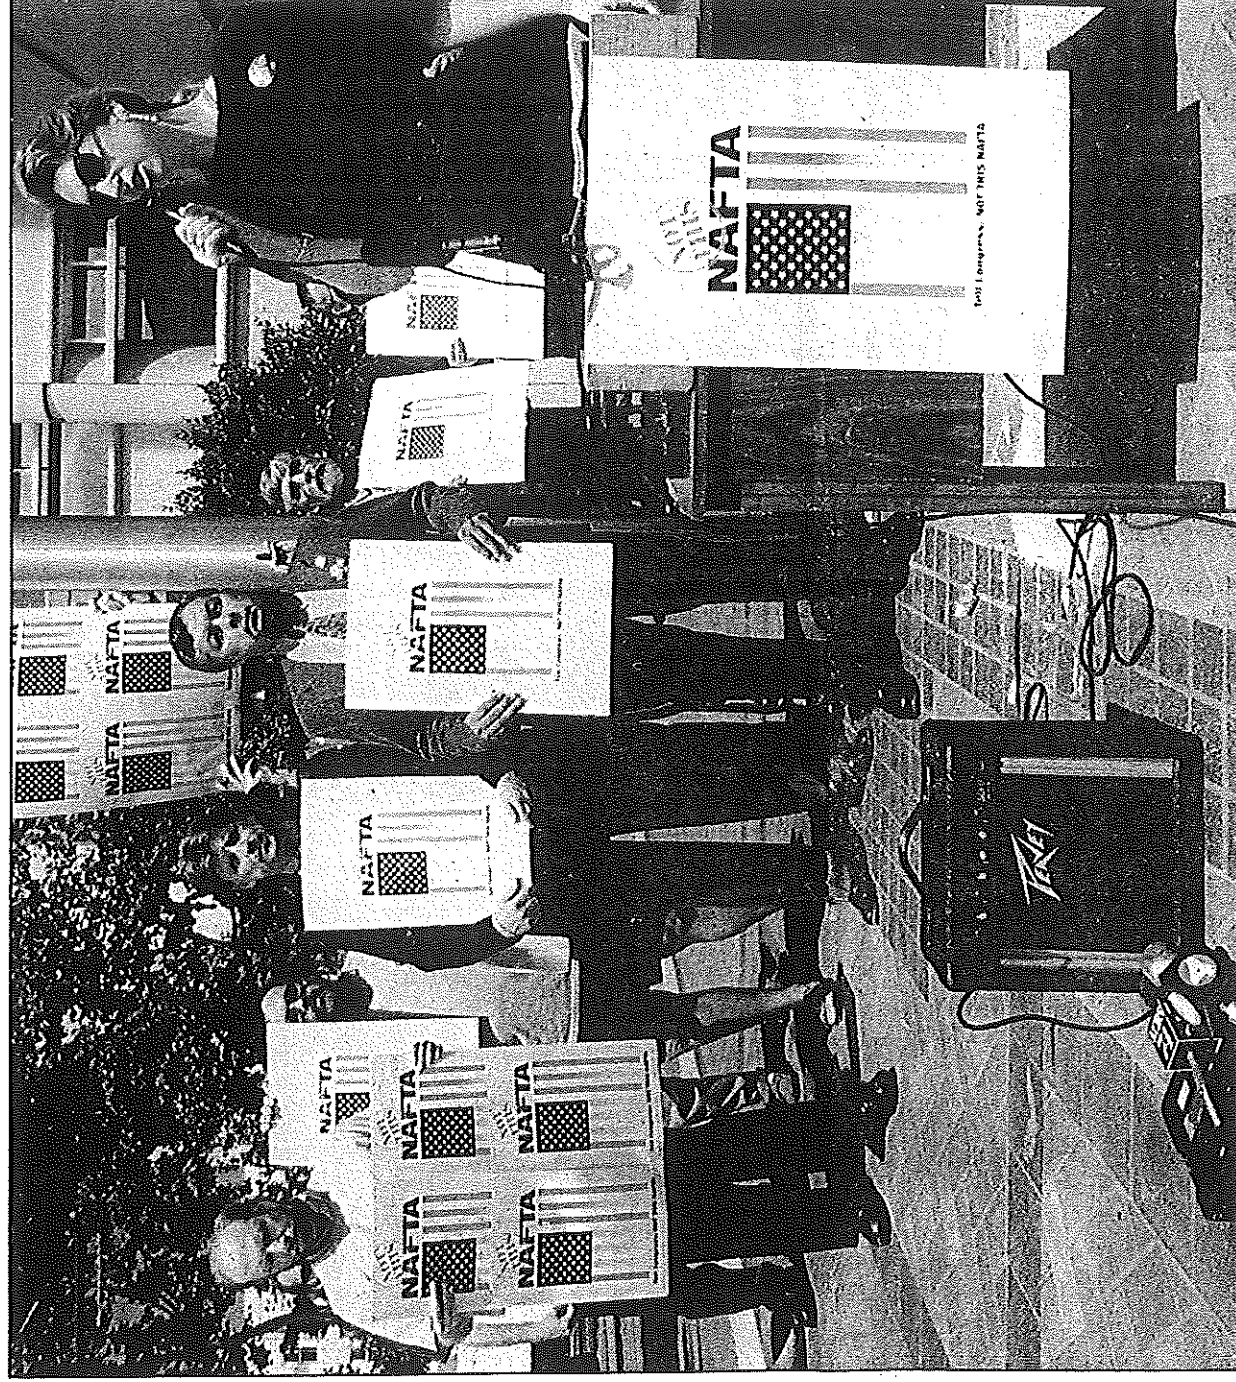

AUGUST 20, 1993

San Jose Mercury News

BUSINESS

MARKETS ♦ HIGH TECH ♦ ECONOMY

Protesting NAFTA

GARY PARKER — MERCURY NEWS

A Santa Clara County coalition of labor, environmental, religious and social justice leaders held a rally Thursday in downtown San Jose to express opposition to the North American Free Trade Agreement, claiming the treaty will force U.S. wages down, cost Americans their jobs, jeopardize food safety and threaten family farms.