

Recycling in action

7/11/03

MIKE SIEGEL / THE SEATTLE TIMES

Making off a seven-city campaign in Seattle, Joseph DeBartolo, left, and Geordie Smith of the Silicon Valley Toxics Coalition collect discarded Dell computers from a recycler. They'll deliver the equipment to Dell Computer's annual shareholders' meeting Thursday in Austin, Texas, to highlight concerns about computer waste. Discarded consumer electronics, the fastest-growing component of municipal garbage, contain toxic materials like lead other heavy metals.
